RE: Change of Correspondence Address Explanation

Dear Commissioner:

I am filing the attached PTO SB122 Form – Change of Correspondence Address Application - because my neighborhood was devastated by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. There is no U.S. Postal service in my neighborhood. There has been not Postal service in my neighborhood since the storms.

I have been displaced from my permanent address (7901 Lafourche Street, New Orleans, LA 70127) since Saturday August 27, 2005. I did not return to my home until October 2005 and I began cleaning up and repairing my property in December 2005. My neighborhood is still devastated and is non-restored as a result of the Hurricanes.

I have not received any correspondence from the USPTO since my evacuation regarding the Hurricanes. If any correspondence has been sent to me since this time or was sent to me immediately prior to this time (i.e. immediately prior to Hurricane Katrina – August 29, 2005), please re-send the communication to my changed address (50 Salem Road, Montevallo, AL 35115). If any of the communications had/have time limits or time frames associated with your communication or with my response, please consider adjustments for such communications.

The patent applications presently submitted and received by the USPTO and “in progress” at the USPTO, for which I am the sole inventor, include Patent Applications 10/979,723 filed 11/03/2004, 10/820,268 filed 04/08/2004, 11/067,561 filed 02/28/2005, and 11/114,435 filed 04/26/2005. I am also the sole inventor for two patents received from the USPTO including Patent Numbers US 6,017,076 dated Jan. 25, 2000 and US 6,683,776 dated Jan. 27, 2004.

Thank you.
